Planger Charlie Ellison started the ball a-rolling in the first race, cleaning up to the queen's taste on James R. Keene's Suffrage. The good aprinter simply gailoped all the way after shaking off Crackenthorpe in the first sixteenth. Prince Hamburg and Mo-Carter were scratched, so the only contention came from J. C. Core, ridden by Miller. "Marvellous Watter" brought Core up from fourth place turning into the stretch, to second place at the finish. The wiffiner, who, by the way, was axolusively selected in The Evening World, was never threatened, hanging up the time of 1.19, three-fifths of a second slower than the track record.

Joekey Stringer Hurt.

Duganites let out a how that could be heard out on the B. R. T. tracks. Joe Nealon finished with a terrific rush, the stepleohase which was marked by the usual spill. Flying Machine went down on the first jump, stepping on Jockey Stringer, who was carried off on a stretcher very badly burt, Larone unseated Butner at the third jump, but in this case natiber horse nor jockey was hurt. The race was a fine one aside from the salis. Ray rode Phantom beautifully, taking the lead the least time around, and holding it until challenged by Commodore Fountaina. The Commodore then led up to the final jump, where he went down in a besp. Ray then came on and mon easily by fifmen lengths. Jamy Lane, with Owens whisping the hide off him, was two lengths ahead of Sheriff Williams. Lane was an ante-post tip that failed.
